IV. Council Comments

A. President Comments – Addressed Trustee Gaul's request to see the General Law Handbook; we will get everyone the General Law Handbook and the Roberts Rules of Order book. We will hold a workshop when the Governor opens things up to review roles and responsibilities.

a. President Getz stated that we used the Village of Stevensville's bucket truck to put up Christmas decorations and take them down. He would like to make a contribution to the Village's park fund in exchange for equipment use. After much conversation, it was decided not to give the donation.

B. Council Member's Comments – After the bills to pay was approved, several of the trustees had questions for clarification on the list.

a. Trustee Krone requested more information about the industrial park. After much discussion, he made a motion to have information included for the Council at the February meeting. Clerk Martin asked for a written request, so she knows what exactly they are asking for. Trustee Krone said he wasn't even sure what he was asking for. Things were very disorganized, and people were talking over each other.

It is very difficult to understand. Trustee Mattner requested everyone take a turn, President Getz used his gavel multiple times. The motion was supported by Trustee Gaul. There were 3 naves, 4 ayes.

- b. Trustee Krone stated a concern about the snow plowing. Trustee Price wants payroll on the check register.

V. Audience Comments – Doreen Schultz asked how much property was left for sale in the park. Clerk Martin stated there is one parcel left for 3.36 acres at $12,000/acre.

Meeting adjourned at 7:30 p.m.
